2 You should reinforce the identity of your trade mark by actively applying it with its associated type of goods and/or services and on mediums such as packaging, websites, marketing materials and trade documents.

3 Your registered trade mark may face the risk of being revoked if it has not been put to genuine continuous use in Singapore within an uninterrupted period of 5 years after it is registered.

Update to Agent/Address for Service and/or Particulars of Trade Mark Proprietor(s)

4 Please ensure that your agent/address for service in the register is up to date. Correspondence from IPOS addressed to the relevant agent/address for service that is effective on the date of said correspondence will be taken to have been successfully communicated to you. You may check the details of the trade mark by conducting a search at https://digitalhub.ipos.gov.sg.

5 Upon any change of ownership of the trade mark, address, address for service, agent or other particulars of the trade mark proprietor(s), please visit https://digitalhub.ipos.gov.sg to update the particulars by lodging the relevant form.

Unsolicited IP Services – Requests for Payment of Fees

6 Please be aware of unsolicited IP services or payment requests in the form of letters and/or invoices from private companies. These notices may give the impression that they are sent on behalf of government IP offices or organisations, or are worded in a way to strongly suggest that you engage their services to register or renew your IP. For example, these notices may prominently feature a warning statement that your IP will expire if not renewed, and subsequently guide you to make hefty payments directly to them to renew the IP.

7 These companies are not affiliated with the Intellectual Property Office of Singapore (IPOS) and you are not obliged to engage their services or pay their fees.

8 As Singapore's national IP office, IPOS' official website is at https://www.ipos.gov.sg, our e-services portal, IPOS Digital Hub, is at https://digitalhub.ipos.gov.sg and our officers have email addresses ending with "@ipos.gov.sg".

9 When in doubt, please exercise caution and verify the authenticity of any document directly with us at ipos_enquiry@ipos.gov.sg or via our hotline at 6339 8616.
