MARCH 2026

Welcome to AEPA's March Update!

March marks a natural point of recalibration in the year; a moment to pause, refocus, and look ahead with intention. As the pace of work accelerates, it becomes even more important to remain grounded in sound principles, professional discipline, and a clear sense of purpose in the work we do.

Estate planning today operates in an environment of heightened complexity, shaped by regulatory developments, cross-border considerations, and rising expectations from clients. In this landscape, professional competence must be actively cultivated. AEPA remains committed to supporting members through structured education, relevant discourse, and opportunities for meaningful professional exchange. Our programmes are designed not only to build technical knowledge, but also to reinforce judgment, ethics, and long-term thinking.

The strength of AEPA lies in its community. We encourage members to stay engaged, contribute perspectives, and participate in our initiatives as we continue to elevate professional standards together. Through shared learning and collaboration, we reinforce the trust placed in our profession and the value we bring to the families and businesses we serve.

Stay informed. Stay connected. Stay ahead—with AEPA.
